

FAMILY HISTORY FAIR
INFORMATION

CRAFT FAIR

* This is our third year to include local crafts people and artisans displaying their handiwork and methods used in making them. For more information about the crafts part of the fair, contact Shirley Bailey, 931-724-4428.

CONCESSIONS

* Our local Wayne County non-profit organizations and clubs will have delicious goodies available for sale throughout the day! Even though we have wonderful restaurants in Waynesboro, we hope you will save room for some homemade treats!

REGISTRATION FOR HISTORY FAIR

If you would like to display your family information and share it with others, fill out the form below and mail it as indicated. (No charge for booth rentals.)

Name _____

Address _____

City/State/ZIP _____

E-mail _____ Phone _____

Type of information you will display:

Will you need access to an electrical outlet?

Please bring business cards to hand out to visitors. Thank you!

Please mail this form to:

Bob Rains
Wayne County Historian
105 E. Songer St.
Waynesboro, TN 38485
rainsr@netease.net

- The Wayne County Historian's Office in the courthouse in Waynesboro will stay open until 12:00 p.m. on July 10th, and a representative of the office will be present to help you with your queries.
- The Wayne County Library will also stay open until 1:00 p.m. that day for your convenience.
- The following books published by the Wayne County Historical Society will be available for sale:

- Wayne County Family History Volumes I & II*
- Wayne County World War I Veterans*
- Wayne County World War II Veterans*
- Wayne County Korean Veterans*
- Wayne County Bible Records*
- Wayne County Vietnam Veterans*

WE'RE STARTING A NEW BOOK!

Wayne County Veterans of the Revolutionary War War of 1812 French & Indian War Spanish American War War Between the States
We need your info!